Nieves is a documented gang member of the Young Crowd street gang. His extensive adult criminal history began at the age of 20. His convictions include buying a handgun without ID mark, assault w/a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, felon in possession of a firearm, receiving known stolen property, evading police w/disregard for public safety, possession of cocaine base for sale and violations of parole supervision. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest a two (2) year term for assault w/a deadly weapon. Nieves was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on December 23, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109), the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Nieves, qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for evading police w/disregard for public safety is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status, as well as his current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
